A registered charity may pursue political activities only if the activities are non-partisan, related to its charitable purposes, and limited in extent. A political activity is any activity that explicitly communicates to the public that a law, policy or decision of any level of government inside or outside Canada should be retained, opposed, or changed.

1 Describe the charity's political activities, including gifts to qualified donees intended for political activities, and explain how these relate to its charitable purposes.

International Justice Mission Canada exists to assist individuals in need who are suffering from injustice, oppression and human rights abuses around the world. In that Canadians from time to time travel abroad to engage in human trafficking and sex tourism, and thereby abuse innocent victims and violate the laws of Canada and the country they visit for this purpose, IJM Canada promotes and supports the enforcement of Canada's extraterritorial provisions for human trafficking and its child sex tourism laws. IJM Canada's political activities are framed by the National Action Plan to Combat Human Trafficking, published in 2012, and IJM Canada is recognized as a stakeholder of the Action Plan by Public Safety Canada.

2 Identify the way the charity participated in or carried out political activities during the fiscal period.
