

WEEK 3 WRITING PROMPTS

Elementary:

- Arul and Pachayamma are so happy to be free from slavery. What is your happiest memory?
- Many people are stuck in slavery, just like Arul and Pachayamma. When you are stuck, who do you call for help?

Upper Elementary:

- Arul and Pachayamma were exhausted when they were working as slaves. What's the most exhausted you have ever been? Why?
- Arul and Pachayamma moved into a new home when they were set free from slavery. What do you like about your home? Would you change anything about it?

Junior High:

- Pachayamma spoke up and told the authorities to trust their story of slavery and help set them free. Have you ever spoken up to help someone else? Is there someone in your life or your community who needs help?
- Arul and Pachayamma are leaders in their community. Who is a leader in your life? What makes them a good leader?

RESEARCH PROMPT:

Pachayamma was incredibly brave to speak out and help secure freedom for herself and others.

Who are some other brave women who have advocated for change? What were they advocating for? How did people feel about their efforts to change the world?

CREATIVE WRITING PROMPTS:

Pachayamma and Arul are now helping set other people free from slavery. Imagine how it might feel to be freed from slavery and then go back to help free others.

Write a short story from their point of view as they approach a facility where others are held as slaves.
